

NEW PERSPECTIVES ON VEDIC COSMOLOGY

Carlos Rocha G
Bhaktivedanta Institute

Abstract

In this article some of the limitations of the Big Bang model are reviewed and an alternative cosmological model delineated in the Vedic literature is presented as a better model. The Vedic model considers a Supreme Being, the God, behind the creation of the cosmos. Manifestations, maintenance and annihilations, and again manifestations of different universes are as per the design of the supreme. The process is a cyclic one and it functions with the energy of the Supreme Being.