

About the Author

Prof. Carlos Rocha G. (Visuddha-Sattva dasa) is a Mathematician (UCV-Caracas, Venezuela), indologist, author of several books, translator and publishing manager. Born in Spain in 1945, he has lived in Venezuela, Paris, London, California and India, where he has participated in many academic events and international conferences. He is original trustee of The Bhaktivedanta Institute and Regional Director for Latin America, Spain & Europe, Miami, and Vrindavana, India, where he has lectured on Vedic Cosmology, one of his main research subject matters. He is the disciple of A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada, the Founder-Acharya of the Bhaktivedanta Institute and ISKCON.

In the 1980s, Prof. Rocha advised in India and Nepal a micro-filming classified project of old Sanskrit manuscripts, sponsored by The Smithsonian Foundation of Washington and executed by the Institute of Vaisnava Studies. His acclaimed book-object The Oracle of the Viking Runes is a Spanish best-seller of New Age Literature.

Prof. Rocha has translated the work of the French poet René Daumal in Spanish. He also has written a book of essays on different subjects. He has published many literary topics in Venezuelan newspapers and magazines during the last three decades. He has conducted literary workshops and academic courses on Vedic Literature. He is the founder and editor-in-chief of Ediciones Chintamani an editorial project to broadcast Vaisnava literature and philosophy in Spanish language.

Presently, Prof. Rocha is working on presenting the Chandelier model for the Temple of Vedic Planetarium (TOVP) project at ISKCON Mayapur.