

About the Author

Prabhakar Ballapalle is presently a Staff Engineer at LSI R&D India. His areas of research and development include Video compression, Audio compression and Speech compression. Before joining LSI he worked as scientist at Central research Laboratory and contributed in many prestigious indigenous projects like development of Thermal Imager, remote surveillance system and Radar Video transmission system etc. He received his M.Tech in Signal processing from IIT-Kanpur in 2000. He has more than 10 publications and one patent for his credit. He is very actively involved in promoting the discussions on science & spirituality among the student's and learned circles. His areas of interest in Science and Spirituality include Bio-feedback and Meditation, Effect of Prayers on Mind and Body, Japa Meditation, personality development etc.

Kalicharan Naik is presently a technical leader at GE Aviation, India. He leads the thermal and fluid systems design and development of next generation aircraft engines such as LEAP-X and TECH-X for C919, A320neo and M170. He received his M.E. in Mechanical Engineering from IISc, Bangalore in 2003 and currently pursuing his doctorate. For his academic and technical excellence he received gold medal in NIT Rourkela, silver medal in IISc, and received two technology excellence awards in GE Aviation. He has several publications in ASME and AIAA journals. His research interests in the field of science and spirituality include origin of life and universe, CFD, gas turbine thermal systems design, and propulsion.

Dr. Radha M is a graduate in Bachelor of Dental Surgery from Oxford dental college, Bangalore. She has been practicing at St. Martha's hospital, Bangalore for a period of four years. She is presently involved in promoting science & spirituality activities.