

About Authors

Born on December 21, 1940, Kolkata, West Bengal, India, His Holiness Srimat Subhag Swami (Milan Kumar Talukdar), got formal education in Kolkata and graduated from Scottish Churches College. He took up further studies in London, UK. During this period of study he met His Divine Grace A.C Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada, the founder acarya of The International Society for Krishna Consciousness, in 1969 – 1970. He received formal vaisnava initiation from Bhaktivendanta Swami Prabhupada in London in 1970. Since then he has been travelling all over the globe preaching the message of the Vedas by which one can understand the ultimate purpose of the human form of life. He is well versed in Sanskrit, Bengali and English languages and has translated many Vaisnava literatures on spiritual subjects from English to Bengali and Sanskrit/Bengali to English. Highly appreciated for his unassuming character, he is well known in spiritual circles as well as in the educational field. He regularly give seminars on science and spirituality in different colleges and universities in India as well as overseas. Presently, he is a spiritual guide and mentor to hundreds of students around the world.

Robindro Aribam (Ramanuja Das) has a Master's degree in Botany from the Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra, Haryana. As a student of Dr. T. D. Singh, the founding director of Bhaktivedanta Institute (BI), Kolkata, Mr. Aribam has been working with BI since 2005 in different capacities. Presently he is engaged as a personal assistant to Srimat Subhag Swami, under whose guidance he is being trained in the Vaisnava Vedanta studies.