

About the Author

His Holiness Srimad Subhaga Swami was born in 1940 in Kolkata, Srila Prabhupada's home town. His Holiness Subhaga Swami Maharaj spent most of his early life in Kolkata and graduated from Scottish Churches College in Calcutta where in 1916 Srila Prabhupada had studied English, Sanskrit, Economics and Philosophy. In 1965 His Holiness went to study BE in London. While studying there His Holiness was introduced to Krishna Consciousness and soon joined Radha Londonisvara temple in its early days.

From the first meeting with Srila A. C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada, His Holiness was engaged in Srila Prabhupada's personal service (like cooking, serving prasada, answering correspondence, etc.) and also engaged in different Other services in ISKCON. Specifically, under the direct instruction from Srila Prabhupada, His Holiness translated different scriptures from Sanskrit and Bengali to English. TO date, Subhag Swami has also translated many books written by Srila A. C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada. Founder Acharya of ISKCON. from English to Bengali, including Krsna the Supreme Personality Of Godhead, Teachings of Lord Kapila, Prayers to Queen Kunti, Easy Journey to Other Planets, Matchless Gifts, Teachings of Lord Caitanya, Isopanishad, Nectar of Instruction and On the way to Krsna. Subhag Swami also translated Caitanya Mangala from Bengali to English, a popular book among followers of the Bhaktivedanta theological tradition.

Sri Srimad Subhag Swami has been based in Sridham Mayapur for the last 36 years in ISKCON. He is one of the present gurus and senior leaders in ISKCON travelling worldwide. Srila Subhag Swami, a fatherly personality in the ISKCON community, is widely appreciated for his simplicity, affection, humility, depth and clarity in Vaisnava Vedanta.