ABOUT US

Bhaktivedanta Institute is a non-profit organization working for the synthesis of science and religion for the benefit of humanity. Our goal is to have spiritual reality accepted and incorporated into scientific research and advancements, and to have scientific principles and methods integrated into the practice of spirituality. Bhaktivedanta Institute is a center for advanced studies in science and spirituality focusing on a consciousness based paradigm of Vedanta to resolve the mind-body problems, the questions of evolution, origin of life and the universe and many other philosophical, ethical and moral human concerns. The institute also promotes scientific, philosophical and religious dialogue among scientists, scholars and religionists of the world covering various common conceptual grounds of science and religion for the purpose of creating a better and harmonious understanding among all the people.

Founded in 1974, Bhaktivedanta Institute has made unparalleled efforts in bridging science and spirituality. The institute has organized numerous conferences, symposiums, seminars and workshops in various educational and research institutes throughout the country and abroad.

University of California*

Dr. T. D. Singh received his PhD in Physical Organic Chemistry from the University of California at Irvine in 1974. He is a scientist and spiritualist known for his pioneering efforts in synthesizing science and religion for a deeper understanding of life and the universe.

He has many contributed papers in the Journal of American Chemical Society and the Journal of Organic Chemistry in the field of fast proton transfer kinetics in model biological systems using stopped flow technique and NMR spectroscopy. He also worked on gas phase reaction mechanisms using Ion Cyclotron Resonance (ICR) spectroscopy.

He was trained in Vaishnava Vedanta studies from 1970 to 1977 under Srila Prabhupada and was appointed Director of the Bhaktivedanta Institute in 1974. He has organized four International Conferences on science and religion - First and Second World Congress for the Synthesis of Science and Religion (1986 & 1997), First International Conference on the Study of Consciousness within Science (1990), and Second International Congress on Life and Its Origin (2004). Collectively thousands of prominent scientists and religious leaders including several Nobel laureates participated. 'A Deeper Contemplation on

A DEEPER CONTEMPLATION ON ORIGIN OF INFORMATION

June 7-9, 2024

@ Gurukula Kangri, Haridwar, India

Information shapes our life. Today, we are surrounded by a variety of information - quantum information, biological information, digital information to name a few. It plays a crucial role in our learning, decision-making, communication and even in our understanding of reality. But what does the information really mean? Is information only physical? What is the relation between bare information and the meaning and understanding of information? Are they related? What is the relation between matter, energy and information? How information originated in our universe to start with? These and many more foundational questions about the information and its origin are perplexing the minds of the great thinkers today.

MY JOURNEY OF DISCOVERY LECTURE SERIES

'My Journey of Discovery' is an interesting lecture series to bring out the 'complete' journey of researchers - their 'whole story', covering their profound contributions to humanity, their inner experiences and reflections as well as the hidden flashes of insights or inspirations received during their discovery.

The Journey of discovery is full of excitement and mystery. It brings to life the dramatic and enthralling character that research involves. The researcher gets propelled by the newer knowledge and getting a step closer to truth.

How important is all of this?

Science and Religion are two powerful forces in modern society, so we should take the time to understand their relationship.

Extreme views on either side can be harmful to our society—leading to ignorance, lack of engagement with, and support for, science...

Far more important, however, in my view, are the basic, separate teachings of Science and of Religion. For the latter, I take the message of Micah 6:8.

What does the Lord require...? to do justice,... to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God.

Science and Religion generally address different kinds of questions

Science	Religion
Based on observation and experiment.
How do things work?	What is the relationship between God and Creation?
What was the sequence of events?	How should we behave toward others?
	Based, at least in part, on other ways of knowing (e.g., faith; revelation).

overlap questions

Expect problems if you put questions to the wrong discipline!

Some things about me and my background

- I am not an expert in the area of science and religion.
- I do not have much to say that is original.
- Others, who have made careers studying the relationship of science and faith, and who have made pioneering contributions, have taught me a great deal.

I am an expert in some small areas of science; I experiment; I publish; I am an "ordinary" scientist.

I am not an expert in religion. I am a Christian. Church and Sunday school; church committees; more conservative than some, more liberal than some others in my church. They love me anyway. I am an "ordinary" person of faith.

Releasing Tattvajijnasa vol. 4 @ Jadavpur Conference, Kolkata

The articles in this volume do stir such inquiring fervor of ours, in the way that they produce a cascade of further inquiries while resolving the original ones. For instance, the very first article, which is a dialogue between renowned theoretical physicist Freeman Dyson, and Vasudeva Rao, President of the Bhaktivedanta Institute, along with Varun Agarwal, Director of the Bhaktivedanta Institute, takes us through a number of avenues, ranging from a spaceship and dark matter to the quantum world, and much more. Dyson is known for his work on quantum field theory, astrophysics, nuclear physics, among other areas of research. Dyson himself is a confessed traveler across the many dimensions of science.
